

Self-Generation Incentive Program (SGIP) in California

All SGIP submission and paperwork responsibilities fall on the Installer

NeoVolta's NV14 was approved on 17 May 2019 for 13,896 Watts.

NeoVolta's NV24 was approved on 27 April 2020 for 23,160 Watts.

The NV14 is a 7,680 Watt inverter. As such, it falls into the "less than 10,000 W" category. As of May 2020, PG&E and SDG&E are in Step 5 or $0.25 per Watt. Southern Edison is in Step 4 or $0.35 per Watt.

NV14 PG&E Step 5 will be a $3,474.00 rebate.

NV24 with NV14 PG&E Step 5 will be a $4,814.00 rebate.

NV14 Edison Step 3 will be a $4,863.60 rebate.

NV24 with NV14 Edison Step 3 will be a $6,740.67 rebate.

NV14 SDG&E Step 5 will be a $3,474.00 rebate.

NV24 with NV14 SDG&E Step 5 will be a $4,814.00 rebate.